

Transnational Migration: Spring 2019

SCHEDULE

-----
Monday 21/1, 2019

Lecture (I), 10-12, B600

Introduction: Understanding Migration

Reading: Holmes, Seth M. (2013). "Fresh fruit, broken bodies: migrant farm workers in the United States". University of California Press

Wednesday 23/1, 2019

Seminar<sup>1</sup> (I). 10-12, B600

-----
Friday 25/1, 2019

Lecture (II), 10-12, B600

Anthropology of Borders and Clandestine Migration

Reading: Anderson, Ruben (2014) Illegality, Inc.: Clandestine Migration and the Business of Bordering Europe, University of California press, plus selected articles

Seminar (II). 13-15, B600

-----
Wednesday 30/1, 2019

Lecture (III), 10-12, B600

Displacement and Refugee Mobility

Reading: Tekalign, Ayalew (2017). Struggle for Mobility: Risk, Hope and Community of Knowledge in Eritrean and Ethiopian migration pathways towards Sweden; Stockholm University PhD Dis.

Seminar (III). 13-15, B600

-----
Tuesday 5/2, 2019

Lecture (IV), 10-12, B600

Gender and Labour Migration

Reading: Shah, Svati Pragna (2014). Street corner secrets: sex, work, and migration in the city of Mumbai. Durham: Duke University Press

Seminar (IV).

Wednesday 6/2, 2019, 13-15, B600

-----
Friday 8/2, 2019

09-12, B600

Each student presents her or his project plan

-----
Friday 15/2, 2019

Final paper due

---

<sup>1</sup> In each seminar students will briefly (5 minutes) present their reaction papers related to major readings.